

SUMMIT HEALTHCARE NEONATAL UNIT, WISHAW GENERAL

Allan & Hanel provided quantity surveying services on the refurbishment of the existing seminar room to an equipment store (phase 1) and the refurbishment of the existing equipment cleaning room, laundry room, neo natal unit, female staff change and mother and baby room to a 12 cot neo natal unit, pharmacy store and female staff change (phase 2) in Wishaw General Hospital. The works include the upgrade and refurbishment, including downtakings, internal alterations, internal fit-out, mechanical and electrical installations, medical gases installations, plumbing drainage and decoration with a major element of the works installing service pendant units (12no) within the neo natal unit.

Project Value: £380,000

Client: Summit Healthcare

Architect: Boswell Mitchell & Johnston